

Notification of Common Law Election completed under Section 30A (5a) – Motor Vehicle and Workplace Accidents (Catastrophic Injuries) Act 2016 by an authorised representative acting on behalf of a licensed insurer or self-insurer. This form is to be submitted by email to mvcsupport@icwa.wa.gov.au

This notice confirms an election<sup>1</sup> to retain the right to seek damages in respect of a catastrophic workplace injury for the purposes of the Workers Compensation and Injury Management Act 2023, (the Act) section 421.

Details of the workplace injury claim made under that Act are below. The election to retain the right to seek damages has been registered by the Director and confirmation of the registration of the election is attached<sup>2</sup>.

1. Details of the injured worker

First Name(s)	Surname/Family Name	Date of Birth
<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
ICWA Claim Number	Employer	Date of Injury
<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
CISS status	<input type="text"/>

2. Confirmation of Common Law Election

Date of Common Law Election	Worker or representative's signature
<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>

Attach a copy of the Registration of the election to seek common law damages.

This form was completed by:

Full Name	Position	Date
<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>

1. A worker who has suffered an injury that is a catastrophic injury must notify the Insurance Commission of Western Australia within 7 days after an election is made to retain the right to seek damages for the purposes of the Workers Compensation and Injury Management Act 2023, section 421. A worker's representative may provide the notice on the worker's behalf.
2. The Director notifies the worker that the election has been registered under the Workers Compensation and Injury Management Act 2023, section 421.